

THE MARCH OF THE WOMEN.

Ethel Smyth, Mus. Doc.

TO the King of the Belgians and his heroic people who, believing in right rather than in might, fought against overwhelming odds in defence of their honour and freedom—even as women in England are fighting to win theirs—undying gratitude, and everlasting glory!

Ethel Smyth

By EMMELINE PANKHURST

THE women of Great Britain will never forget what Belgium has done for all that women hold most dear.

In the days to come mothers will tell their children how a small but great-souled nation fought to the death against overwhelming odds and sacrificed all things to save the world from an intolerable tyranny.

The story of the Belgian people's defence of Freedom will inspire countless generations yet unborn.

E. Pankhurst